MAYOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Neighbors:

I write regarding recent action of the Glenview City Commission. Enclosed for your information are copies of the most recently adopted tax and budget ordinances. I'm pleased to report that Glenview's ad valorem property tax rate remains unchanged, and the budget contemplates the continuation of ongoing programs and services at levels consistent with our past.

Additionally, I have heard expressions of concern from some residents regarding the protest caravans that have made a lot of noise late at night, disrupting sleep and traffic as they travelled down Blankenbaker Lane on June 9 and River Road on June 24. Although I have heard some misinformation alleging looting in Prospect on June 24, the Prospect Police Chief's report of the June 24 incident indicates that Prospect received no complaints of looting or property damage. I have also communicated with Louisville Metro Police Major Jamie Schwab, whose firm, Homeland Patrol Services, provides off-duty police officers to patrol Glenview during select times on most days of each month. Major Schwab is aware of the protests, Louisville Metro's response to them, and the Glenview Commission's concern for the safety and security of its residents. If you have questions or concerns, please let me or one of the other members of the Commission know.
